

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

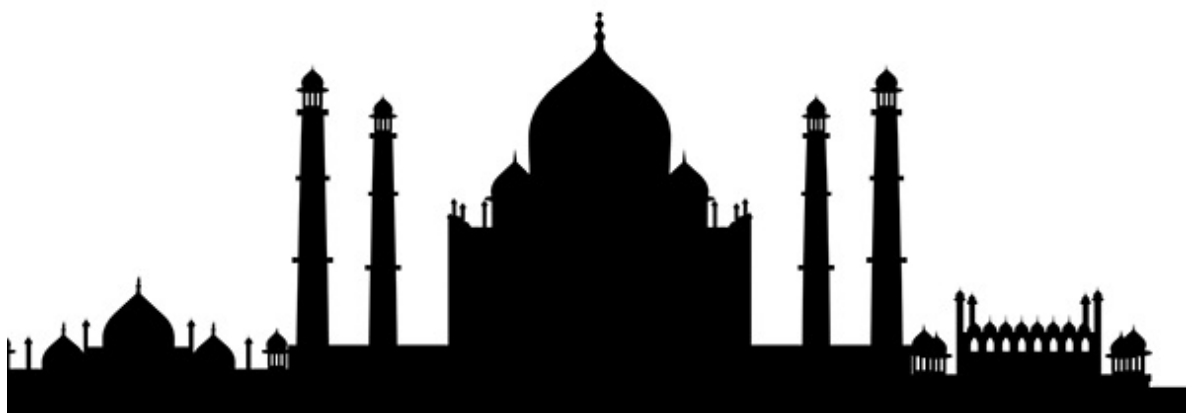

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Would you dedicate a monument to the love of your life?

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about famous buildings and structures.
- I can ask for clarification about the characteristics of a thing.

Ask your partner:

- Have you heard of the Taj Mahal?
- Do you know its history?
- How big is the building? How old is it?

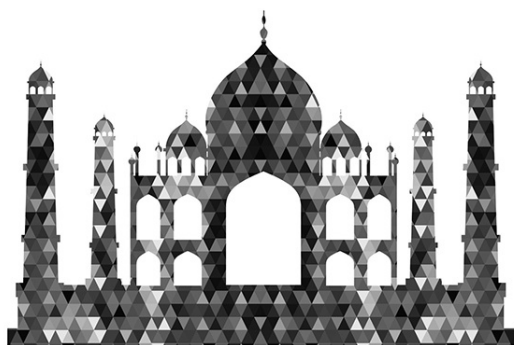

Let's Explore!

The Taj Mahal is one of the new Seven Wonders of the World. How special is this building in the history of humanity?

* "The new 7 Wonders of the World" are extremely important historical constructions, like Chichen Itza, the Colosseum, or Petra, Jordan.

Taj Mahal
India

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

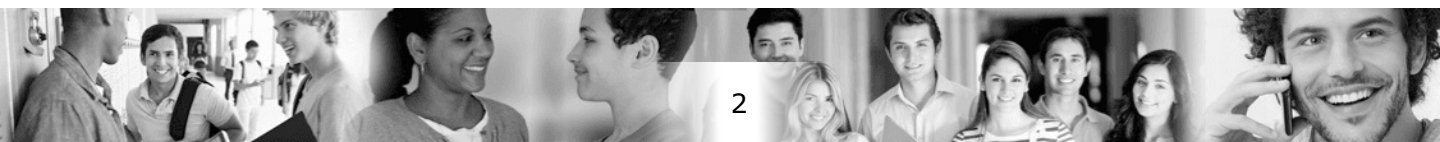

How romantic would it be to have a building dedicated to you? How beautiful should it be? These are a few questions people have asked themselves ever since the Taj Mahal was built.

Shah Jahan, who was an emperor in India, loved his wife Mumtaz Mahal so much that after her death he decided to build a monument in her memory. It would be as beautiful as she was.

It took 22 years to complete this stunning piece of architecture.

The Taj Mahal has a main gateway, a large garden, a mosque, a guest house, and several other buildings. The garden is divided into four sections by four shallow pools, and each of the four sections is also divided into perfect geometrical order.

The interior and exterior designs include flowers and calligraphy made of gemstones. The mausoleum houses the two graves of the loving couple. It has remained a landmark of love and devotion for many generations.

Let's Practice!

Visiting the Taj Mahal is a unique experience.

Instructions: Match the sentences in column A with column B.

COLUMN A

1. The Taj Mahal has remained
2. I have never
3. The building has attracted
4. Why has it remained
5. People have asked themselves
this question

COLUMN B

- a. seen anything like it!
- b. millions of visitors over the years.
- c. so popular for 300 years?
- d. a landmark of love and devotion
for generations.
- e. ever since it was built.

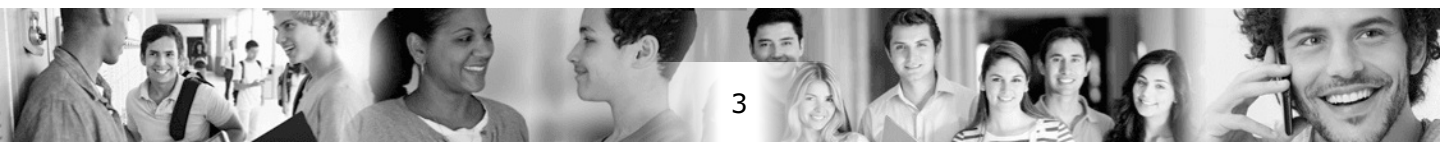

Let's Practice!

Can you find the words to describe the Taj Mahal?

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Underline the incorrect words. Type in the correct words to correctly complete each sentence.

1. How shallot are the pools? _____
2. How bountiful should it be? _____
3. How lardge is the garden? _____
4. How stunting is the architecture? _____
5. How roam antics would it be to have a building dedicated to you? _____

Extension Activity

Imagine you are a tour guide. Which building in your city would you show?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of a building in your city that you like, or that you think is very special.
- Write a description of this building similar to the description of the Taj Mahal that you read.
- Find out the building's history. What makes it special? What is it made of? Has the building been popular since it was built? Has it attracted tourists over the years?
- Read your description aloud to the rest of the class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about buildings and structures.

☐
☐

I describe how something is.

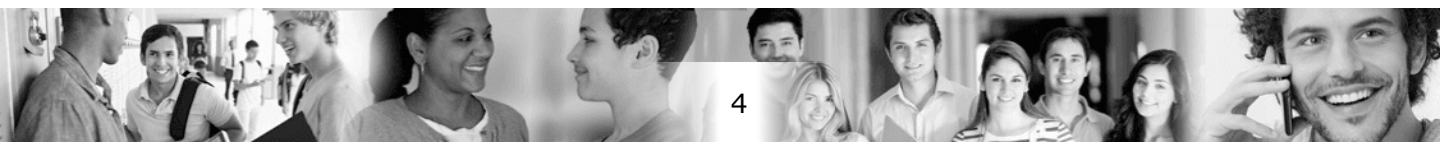

☐
☐

I talk about things in the past.

☐
☐

Target Words

- to dedicate (verb): to devote time and effort to a task or someone e.g. How romantic would it be to have a building dedicated to you?
- calligraphy (noun): decorative handwriting and lettering
e.g. The walls of the Taj Mahal are decorated with beautiful calligraphy.
- gateway (noun): an opening that can be closed by a gate
e.g. The Taj Mahal has a main gateway and a beautiful garden.
- gemstone (noun): precious stone, usually polished and used in jewelry
Example: The interior designs include flowers and calligraphy made of gemstones.
- section (noun): a part of a whole
e.g. The garden is divided into four sections.
- shallow (adjective): not deep
Example: The garden is divided into four sections by four shallow pools.
- generation (noun): a large number of people born about the same time
e.g. The Taj Mahal has remained a landmark for many generations.
- geometrical (adjective): shaped according to patterns and shapes e.g. Each of the four sections is divided in perfect geometrical order.

Learning Points

The Present Perfect Tense vs. The Simple Past Tense

You use the Present Perfect tense to talk about actions you have done at some point in your life that may happen in the future.

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about a finished action or event.

Examples:

- Shah Jahan, who was an emperor in India, loved his wife Mumtaz Mahal so much that after her death he decided to build a monument in her memory. (Simple Past)

When you use the Past Simple, the time is always past.

- It has remained a landmark of love and devotion for many generations. (Present Perfect)

When you use the Present Perfect there is a connection between what happened in the past and now.

To form the Present Perfect tense, you use have/has + the past participle of the base form of the verb.

	Past tense form	Past participle form	Example
ask	asked	asked	People have asked ...
remain	remained	remained	It has remained ...

Examples:

- The Taj Mahal has remained a landmark of love and devotion for many generations.

Questions With How + Adjectives

You use How + adjective in a question if you want to know how someone or something is.

Examples:

- How romantic would it be to have a building dedicated to you?
- How beautiful should it be?

